Items of Local Interest.

ALMOST ENOUGH.

Since last report, a number of public spirited citizens have come to the front, and we can say that if a few more dollars are subscribed work on the Hotel and Opera House will be commenced within a week or ten days. The Company can not do anything unless some help is received, and it does seem that there is enough public spiritedness in Lancaster to raise the little pittance needed. If one-tenth the money sent out of Lancaster each year on some harem-scarem now-you-see-it-now-you-dont scheme, a house could be built forty stories high. Think about this like business men, and we will soon have the best hotel and opera house in the state, as we did before the other burned. The paper is in the hands of Louis Landrum, and only a little time can be given the matter, so please make up your mind so the thing can be closed up and work commenced at once. Its not a gift, but merely an addition to the value of your property.

J. C. Siler took some of his horses to the Broadhead fair and won twelve blue and three red ties.

Danville's latest offer to the railroad is all the water the company wants. Now throw in a week's washing, boys, and you'll have it.

A coon excursion passed up from Louisville to Richmond Sunday. Several of Lancaster's well coddled folks joined the crowd.

A protracted meeting will begin at Fairview the first Sunday in September. Rev. Wm. Robinson will conduct the services, and all are invited to attend.

W. O. Dunlap, the painter, has just finished up the large signs on The Record office, a big improvement. He is a fine painter and if you need anything in his line, give him a call.

Rev. J. L. Bruce has just closed a protracted meeting at Kirksville. Rev. B. A. Daws, came up from Louisville and took part in the meeting. There were 31 additions to the church.

The Danville Advocate reports the death of Miss Anna Gould, in Indianapolis, last week. Miss Gould at one time lived in Lancaster, and was a niece of the Messrs Haselden. She recently returned from Porto Rico, where she was employed by the government as Kindergarten teacher.

Common School Contest.

The teachers ask that the contest be postponed until further notice.

They'll Finally Get Them.

Danville is again discussing the electric light problem. It is strange that a pushing, up-to-date town like Danville doesn't have this great improvement.

Petitions Not Filed.

For some reason, the petitions asking for a vote of local option were not filed in the county court Monday. We understand they are ready, and will be filed with the court probably next county court day.

Meeting at Hubble.

Rev. Allan R. Moore closed his meeting at Hubble Sunday night. New interest was awakened in church matters, and there were 32 additions. We understand much good was accomplished by his able sermons.

Last Sunday.

The closing services for the Conference year will be held at the Methodist church next Sunday. The Conference convenes at London next week, Bishop Morrison, presiding. This may be Bro Robinson's last Sunday, and he requests that all the members and friends of the church be present.

Much Politics.

Nearly all the candidates were here Monday and such handshaking was never before witnessed. It looks like Garrard is going to be the battle ground in the judge's race, as both Judge Stanley and Mr. Harding have some personal friends here who will leave no stone unturned in behalf of their respective candidate.

Takes Charge the First.

Mr. J. C. Siler tells us he will take charge of the Veranda Hotel, at Paint Lick Sept. 1st. Mr. Siler is a hustler, and will run a first-class hotel. He will devote special attention to his livery department, and keep the best of rigs for hire. He has resided here for some time, and made many friends among the Lancaster people.

Big Time for Colored People.

The Lincoln-Garrard Fair will be held at Stanford, commencing today and running through Saturday, big premiums have been offered and many attractions will be there. As many prominent Lancaster colored men are interested, a big crowd will go over from here.

Ceph Will Make Money.

Instead of "taking in" washing, to keep his paper going, as most of our rural editors have to do, Bro. Ceph Campbell, of the Somerset Journal, is dabbling in the ginseeng business, and we hope is making dead oodins of money. He claims "there's millions in it," and we hope he will see his brightest hopes come to pass.

Compliment For Tomlinson.

Danville News:—Hon. Robert Tomlinson, of Garrard county, who is a candidate for Lieutenant Governor, was in Danville Monday mingling with the voters of this and adjoining counties. He is an able lawyer, an excellent gentleman and a simon-pure Democrat and the Democratic party will make no mistake in electing him to the position he seeks.

Water Works at Paint Lick.

Mr. I. C. Rucker, of Paint Lick, was here Monday and told us the prospects for putting in water works at that thriving city were good. They have the water close at hand, and as the distance to cover is short, and an engine on the ground there's no reason why it should not be done. That is the busiest town in this section, and what they want they generally get. Success to them.

More Residences Wanted.

Notwithstanding the fact that most one hundred dwelling houses were erected in Lancaster the past year, the demand for residences from new comers is so brisk that there is not a vacant dwelling in the city. Hardly a day passes that THE RECORD is not asked for information concerning vacant property, and this demand has been exceptionally heavy within the past ten days.

Is More Than Expected.

Gov. Beckham has received a communication from the War Department stating that the money due the State for services during the Spanish-American war has been forwarded and will arrive in a few days. The communication gave the amount allowed the claim as $68,960, which is considerably more than the State officials had looked for. They had not expected more than $30,000.

Court Day.

There was an unusually large crowd in town Monday, and business with the merchants was quite good for an August court. There were about 200 cattle at Estes' pens, all sold. Two-year-olds brought $4 and $4.45, yearlings 3 to 4c. Some cows on market, but none sold. B. G. Fox bought, for Jo Kendig 60 mule colts and yearlings at from $20 to $60. R. T. Hubble bought 14 cotton mules at $65 to $100. A few horses sold at from $75 to $145. W. B. Burton bought a few horses and mules at from $100 to $110. Mule colts were here in large numbers, but many went home to await more money. The day was very quiet, only few drunks, and they were of the friendly kind.

John Paul Miller, of this city, stood his second examination and has been ordered to report at the Naval Academy at once.

Brakeman, William Purdam, who resided in the Hubble neighborhood, was killed in a freight wreck on the Southern, near Busby, Ky., Tuesday. The remains were brought here for burial yesterday.

Serious Accident.

While climbing a plum tree, at his mother's home, on Lexington street, Master Joseph Rogers fell, breaking his left arm, just above the elbow. Physicians immediately set and bandaged the break, but the handsome little fellow is suffering much pain.

New Executive Committee.

Mr. Thomas G. Watkins, president of the Kentucky Press Association, has selected the following Executive Committee for the organization: Louis Landrum, Lancaster, chairman; David B. Wallace, Warsaw, R. A. Gullion, New Castle; Thomas Underwood, Hopkinsville, and Charles F. Hart, Morganfield.

Tally for Editor.

Danville Courier:—Editor Landrum in the last issue of the Central Record is urging the citizens of Lancaster to replace the beautiful hotel and theatre that was recently wiped out by fire. If every citizen of Lancaster was imbued with the same spirit of push and enterprise as Editor Landrum he would not be compelled to labor over double column articles urging his people to fall back to her "foah de wah" times.

Big Fair at Nicholasville.

The Record acknowledges, with many thanks, courtesies for the big Knights of Pythias Fair, that will be held at Nicholasville Sept. 3 and 4. The Knights are working hard to have the most successful fair of the season, and, as Nicholasville always gets what she goes after, it's a safe prediction the fair will prove all they hope for. Robt. H. Webb is secretary, and J. N. Traynor, president.

Moves To Bryansville.

Dr. J. M. Acton, at the solicitation of many of his friends in that end of the county, has decided to locate at Bryansville, and moved there this week. Dr. Acton, who is a graduate of the best medical schools in the land, has been in Lancaster for six years, and during that time has built up a fine practice. He is a good doctor and a citizen, and we dislike to see him leave, but his wife's health is not good and he thinks the change will benefit her. The Record hopes Dr. Acton will do well in his new location, as he is a deserving man and a splendid physician.

The Asylums Fall.

The fact that the insane asylums of Kentucky are full and unable to provide accommodations for more female patients was developed by a request to admit Columbia Reeves, a Franklin county patient, who is being cared for by the county authorities, and the Governor's office authorizes the statement that county officials should not start to the asylums for a while with female patients without first inquiring whether they can be received. A failure to observe this precaution may cause expense that the State will not be authorized to refund.

Musical.

Mrs. Patterson assisted by the musical talent of the town, will give an entertainment Thursday evening, Sept. 4th, at the court house. Proceeds for the benefit of the mountain school. This school is located at Minnam, Knott county, forty-five miles from the railroad. The school is under the supervision of Miss Katherine Pettit, of Lexington, and Miss Stone, of Louisville. They propose by the assistance of the women of the State, to run an Industrial school. Anything that can be used in a home will be accepted, bedding, furniture, clothing, books and provisions. All donations can be left with Miss Amanda Anderson.

A Short Sermon.

Some Lancaster "Sunday only" Christians (?) would like for this to be tried in Lancaster: "The shortest sermon on record was preached at Atlantic, Mich., on a recent Sunday. The pastor had been requested to make his discourse brief on account of the hot weather, so he announced as his text Luke xvi, 24: "And he cried and said: 'Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus that he may dip the end of his finger in water and cool my tongue, for I am tormented in this flame.'" The sermon was as follows: "Three persons, Abraham, Dives and Lazarus. It was hot where Dives was. He wanted to get out. So do we. Let us pray."

Avoid an Epidemic.

Typhoid fever is becoming epidemic in several towns of the State and much of this is due to decaying vegetation at this time of the year which contaminates the water supply. This can be avoided, especially in the city, if persons will cut all weeds in their yards, pile them up, saturate with coal oil and burn them. Drain all pools of water liable to hold filth, and remove all rubbish from the premises that is liable to cause sickness. A liberal use of copers and lime is recommended, and as we believe an ounce of prevention will save our citizens many dollars, THE RECORD suggests that a proclamation from Mayor Kinnaird will bring about the desired result.

Into Danville.

Mr. A. H. Bastin has closed a deal whereby he gets possession of the Van Winkle lines in the city of Danville, and now has charge of same. Extensive improvements will be made in the Danville exchange, the newest and best instruments put in, and Danville given excellent service. Mr. Bastin is an energetic citizen, one of our best promoters, and if given any encouragement will go his length to give the people the best to be had.

A Lancaster Inventor.

Ernest Brown, of this place, has invented a coffee grinder which, by a simple device, can be attached to any telephone. Whenever the 'phone crank is turned a fly-wheel on the grinder rapidly revolves, thereby putting the machine in motion. By keeping a little coffee in the hopper and using your 'phone occasionally you can always have on hand plenty of ground coffee ready for use. Brown has applied for a patent. The invention appeals to every family that uses a "hello" machine and drinks coffee, for this reason will no doubt eventually come into general use.

This Fits Lancaster, Too.

Danville Advocate:—In the railway situation just now is much for encouragement, and nothing at all for overconfidence. There can be no doubt that the people want the road, and there can be no doubt that they are willing to pay for it. Neither can there be any doubt that they must come forward and pay for it, and do this at an early date if the road is to be brought here. In all the discussions that have ranged in these columns during the past thirty days, the position has been taken that Danville must have the road, or back down from all pretensions of being an enterprising, up-to-date community, surrender whatever pre-eminence she may have attained, divest herself of pride, bid farewell to future growth and prosperity, and school herself to perpetual adversity henceforth with such equanimity as she may. But these and the thousand other uncalculated evils which would follow the permanent loss of the road will never come. There is too much enterprise, business sense and public spiritedness in the community for that. It is of account of this condition, the success with which reason has so far prevailed when the matter is fully discussed and brought to the attention of the citizens, that those who have the solicitation and collection of funds in hand feel encouraged. All that is necessary is for each one to do his duty; and if this is done, the next week or ten days will bring forth wonders in reaching a completion of the task.

Paying Wells.

The Somerset Journal says of Sunnysbrook producers, in which some stock is owned in Lancaster. The two best oil wells in the United States are at Sunnysbrook. Geary Company's No. 4 and Somerset Oil Company's No. 10 are each producing 150 barrels of oil every day and the product is turned into the Standard's storage tanks for credit checks which are issued daily. If any rooster doubts the accuracy of this statement, the cash on our inside pocket will back up the assertion.

Death of Mrs. Elam.

The letter containing notice of death of Mrs. Geo. Elam, was mislaid or mis-sent, and we failed to make note of the sad occurrence. She died at her home in Flatwood, and the burial took place at the old Patterson grave yard, in that locality. She was a devout member of the Baptist church, and a good Christian woman. She was a Miss Bourne, and a grand-daughter of the late Cephus Conn. She left her husband and several children to mourn her loss, and they have deep sympathy. Mr. Elam extends his thanks for the many kindnesses shown by the good neighbors.

The Town Kicker.

The Kickers on the farm are not as hard to get along with as the kickers in the town. On the farm there are the kicking cow and our long-eared friends, the mule, while in town there is the old mossback, who is opposed to letting his business be known through the local press and who wants all the privileges of municipal living without paying for them, and block, so far as he can, every municipal improvement, says the Richmond Clinician.

Whereas we have no one who wishes to profit by starting an enterprise, to encourage the people who are coming here daily and investing their money to develop the country and town. We must insist on these good-easy-going kind of people who are satisfied with just what happen, to not kick because our bakeryman stays in his place of business on Sunday to accommodate you. You must remember it is an enterprise that you would not undertake, and if our livery man furnishes you a rig on Sunday don't say that such should not be allowed in this good and saintly place where you can find hundreds of things happening that is of no profit to our town or our country.

Men of capital are not going to invest their money when they cannot even buy accommodations, because they are prohibited by a town law.

The cow may be sold for beef and the mule traded for a shotgun, but nothing but a funeral will get rid of a town kicker.

It is not always the man who is full of hot air that rises highest.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

For Circuit Judge.

I am a candidate for the Democratic nomination for the judgeship of the 13th judicial district of Kentucky, composed of the counties of Boyle, Garrard, Lincoln and Mercer.

M. C. SAUFLEY.

For Commonwealth Attorney.

We are authorized to announce Chas. A. Hardin as a candidate before the Democratic party as Commonwealth Attorney of this, the thirteenth Judicial District.

Petitions are being circulated in Garrard asking the powers-that-be to undo its call for conventions and hold primary elections.

When the grand jury inspects the public buildings, it should order iron shutters placed on back of the court house. Look into it gentlemen. Its dangerous.

Chairman D. R. Collier has issued a call for a convention of the Republicans of the county to meet Saturday, the 29th, at 2 o'clock, in this city to select delegates to the district convention to be held in Nicholasville, Sept. 2.

Circuit Court.

Geo. Clouse, for breaking into a war house, was given two years. The school book case, which has attracted much attention, was given a change of venue and will be tried in Lincoln. The court is disposing of a number of little Commonwealth's cases today.

Pedestrian Rights.

The right of a pedestrian on an established street crossing over any vehicle whatever, except those of the fire and police departments, is absolute, yet every day we see this established principle of American law violated by the drivers and by those who are not driving fast. Perhaps you do not know it, but you have no right if you are driving to force any pedestrian to stop and wait until you go over a street crossing. You are the one who is supposed to stop. If injury occurs to a pedestrian on account of your failure to stop, you are personally liable for damages.

Telephone Exchange Leased. If we had a town full of hustlers like our good old friend A. H. Bastin, we would soon have every improvement up-to-date citizens desire. Not satisfied with having the best exchange in the state here at home, he continues to "branch out." The Danville Advocate says: "The Bastin Telephone Company, of Lancaster, has leased the Van Winkle lines and will take possession tomorrow. A number of new metallic circuits will be put in and other improvements made. Within thirty days arrangements will be made for connection with Louisville and several other points."
